Is this what you had in mind

by: Joel Lindsey and Sue Smith

1st verse

When I look at the world and the way we all live Lord I wonder how you could still love and forgive. Do you shake your head when you look at man kind? Is this what you had in mind?

Chorus

When you took to the cross like a man who was judged on the scale of our sin, by the weight of your love. When you came down to earth and left heaven behind is this what you had in mind? Is this what you had in mind?

2nd verse

If I gave all I had it would not be enough to repay all the grace and the hope and the love. There is peace and there's joy that I constantly find. Is this what you had in mind?

Repeat Chorus

We'll sing a song

By: Chris Binion

1st verse

There are times when I feel that I don't have a song. It's been hushed by the load that I bear. But I know what is waiting at the end of this road Oh I can hardly wait to get there. You see all of the worries and troubles I face one day soon will be ore. The day I cross over ole chilly Jordan and my feet hit heaven's bright shore

Chorus

I'll sing a song (the angels cannot sing) I'm redeemed (praise God I've been redeemed) I will walk (I'll walk on streets of purest gold, purest gold) I will see (all of my loved ones there) and my Lord (there's none that can compare) I know I've made it when I make it to my heavenly home

2nd verse

Now our enemy Satan he tries to defeat us reminding us who we once were. He constantly brings up the things that we gave up when he was the master we served. Now if you want to remember mistakes from the past, remember the one Satan made. When the enemies plan failed to stop Jesus the Savior made sure that one day

Repeat Chorus

From the Cross to the Lost

by: Joel Lindsey and Anthony Facello

1st verse

Long before I ever knew the face of love He saw me in my sin and felt my shame.
Stumbling in darkness I could never rise above then I heard Him gently calling out my name

Chorus

From the cross to the lost love was reaching out across the miles and years to find me here. From the cross to the lost came a promise He would pay whatever cost. To send His endless mercy, grace and love from the cross to the lost.

2nd

I don't know if you have ever heard the voice of grace that thunders through the corridors of sin. But echoes of your yesterdays have all been erased. Now mercy lives where justice once had been.

Chorus

Bridge

The blood of atonement poured out from His side as He hung high on Calvary's hill. The passing of time cannot diminish the power for the blood is flowing still!

Repeat Chorus

4.

Oh Bless His Name

by: Chris Binion

1st verse

I have traveled down the pathway through a dark a weary land on a journey leading nowhere down a road that had no end. Drifting farther from His freedom needing answers for my life I called on Jesus and I know without a doubt He heard my cry!

Chorus

O praise the Lord! He heard my plea! When I reached up the Lord reached down to rescue me. He made my path a way called straight. He's everything I'll ever need oh bless His name!

2nd verse

On occasion trials befall me even though I've made my choice. I still find myself in waiting listening for that still small voice. Knowing certain that He's with me I'll continue on the path. Holding on to His assurance that the storms will come to pass!

Repeat Chorus

5.

He'll see you through

By: Brandon Barry and Doug Roark

1st verse

They were standing on the shoreline when the Master gave the word to load the boat and sail across the sea. Beginning with no worry but very soon they'd find that a sunny day would soon turn into night. He heard them crying desperately for mercy, as the waves crashed hard against the vessel's side. It seemed all hope had died but the Master soon replied. Speaking peace He calmed the raging tide.

Chorus:

God will not guide where He will not provide. He'll never lead you through a valley without walking by your side. And when the storms around you cease it's because the Prince of Peace has already walked ahead of you. And I know He will see you through.

2nd verse

Is the battle that you're facing more than you can bear? Are you holding on trying to survive? Do you find that there's no answer in the time of your despair, and your longing just to feel Him one more time? I can say I know exactly what you're facing, though you've heard it all a thousand times before. If you'll look just one more time I am sure that you will find. He's never left you standing all alone.

Bridge:

When the storm around you rages and the strong winds knock you down. When the lights of hope are fading, it's then and there I've found.

Empty Bucket

by Eddie Caviness and Music arrangement by Doug Roark

1st verse

The noon day sun was shining as a woman made her way to draw a drink of water from a vessel made of clay. At the well she met a stranger. One who told her of her sin. He gave her living water so she'd never thirst again

Chorus

She came with just a bucket and a life so wrecked by sin. She only had a bucket and a thirst down deep within. It was an empty bucket and a lost soul bound for hell. When she came she had a bucket when she left she had the well!

2nd verse

Now I can see her leaving as she's headed back toward town to tell her friends and neighbors of the water that she's found. She said "I've been forgiven! I've been washed! I've been made whole! Now I have a well of water way down in my soul!"

Chorus

She came with just a bucket and a life so wrecked by sin. She only had a bucket and a thirst down deep within. It was an empty bucket and a lost soul bound for hell. When she came she had a bucket when she left she had the well!

Portrait of Grace

by: Rodney Griffin

1st verse

My life was a canvas ruined by sin. A picture of failure wrinkled and dim but then the master painter with a touch so precise brushed out the old stains and brought me to life

Chorus

As a portrait of beauty one scarred and decayed. A picture now worthy to heaven displayed. With a brush from His nail pierced hands my sins were erased. And He started painting a portrait of grace

2nd verse

My life now, His portrait, is still incomplete but He is still working so patiently. When He is finished He'll come take me home. And I'll be presented in a shiny white robe!

Chorus

As a portrait of beauty one scarred and decayed. A picture now worthy to heaven displayed. With a brush from His nail pierced hands my sins were erased. And He started painting a portrait of grace 8.

He Chose the Tree

By: Kenneth Kuykendall

1st verse

He was the prize of all creation. From his seed would rise the nations. He could have anything that his heart desired. But the one thing God commanded proved that Adam was just human as the beauty of the tree he would defile. God took away the glory as he held onto the tree as the weight of sin was placed on you and me.

Chorus

He chose the tree over life, as he suffered and he died. In his hands he held and felt the penalty. He chose the tree by his will, all humanity would feel. Either life or death to choose what would it be? He chose the tree

2nd verse

He was the Lord of all creation. From His seed would come salvation up to Calvary's' hill the Lamb of God would go. As our fate hung in the balance all of heaven watched in silence. He could call upon the angels if He chose. God put back all the glory as He held onto the tree as He took the weight of sin off you and me!

2nd Chorus

He chose the tree over life as He suffered and He died. In His hands He held and felt the penalty. He chose the tree by His will. All humanity would feel. Either life or death to choose what would it be? He chose the tree!

Bridge

By one man death would enter, by another life began. A tree is where it started and a tree is where it ends!

Chorus

He chose the tree over life as He suffered and He died. In His hands He held and felt the penalty. He chose the tree by His will, all humanity would feel. Either life or death to choose what would it be? He chose the tree!

The Rock that will never roll away

By: David Jenkins

1st verse

I used to be a double minded man one foot in the miry clay and one on sinking sand. But now I'm on the rock that's able to keep me steady, strong and stable. Jesus is the rock where I stand!

Chorus

I'm standing on the rock that will never roll away. Standing on the solid rock of ages! He's the rock of my salvation, safe and sure foundation and I'm standing on the rock that will never roll away!

2nd verse

Right now in the hollow of His hand stands a mighty fortress that wasn't made by man. This rock is built on nothing less than Jesus blood and righteousness. Blessed be the rock where I stand!

Chorus

I'm standing on the rock that will never roll away. Standing on the solid rock of ages! He's the rock of my salvation, safe a sure foundation and I'm standing on the rock that will never roll away!

Repeat chorus

You've Gotta Love the Love

by: Kenneth Kuykendall

1st verse

No greater is love is found in any man than when the son of God lay down His life for all his friends. I love the way He loves me and my mind can't comprehend the height the width the depth of God's great salvation plan

Chorus

You gotta love the love that the love of God gives (When you're burdened down with sin)
You gotta speak the word that the word of God speaks (when your rope is running thin)
You gotta know you know that you know you know Him (this is where His grace begins)
You gotta love (to love) you gotta speak (to speak) you gotta know Him to enter in.

2nd verse

Jesus said I am the way life and the truth. And the gate is narrow where you enter through. Like a blind man in the darkness I prayed to have my sight. Well He opened up my blinded eyes and my day was turned to night

repeat chorus

12.

What will you choose today

by: Hope Glaze and Chris Binion

1st verse

A wealthy young man made his way to Jesus. His mind filled with questions of things he'd like to ask. When the moment arrived and he was close enough to hear Him he sees the opportunity for answers at last. When he walked away from Jesus his heart was in pieces as he realized all he held he could never let go

Chorus

Yesterday's gone Tomorrows not promised. What will you do with Jesus today? This is your time. This is your moment. Will you turn to Him or turn away? What will you choose today?

2nd verse

Now centuries have past and the world is ever changing. The things that you're now facing seem different than before. From the pressures of life to the joy in every moment you try to fill the void you cannot see. Like the rich young ruler, Jesus offers new life to you. And all you have to do is realize He's all you need!

Repeat chorus
